Compensatory Damages and Other Remedies

Instructors: Deryn Sumner & Gary Gilbert

Location: In-person (Silver Spring, MD) & Virtual (Zoom for Government)

Time: 9:00 AM – 4:30 PM EST

An authoritative and in-depth examination on the subject of damages available before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Merit Systems Protection Board and federal courts as they relate to discrimination cases presented by the people who literally wrote the book! Attendees will learn the burdens of proof that must be met to support an award of compensatory damages and other remedies, the types of evidence necessary to prove nonpecuniary damages and how agencies can challenge that evidence, and understand the impact of recent EEOC decisions on awards of nonpecuniary damages. Attendees will also learn each type of equitable and non-equitable relief available to successful complainants under Title VII, the ADEA, and the Rehabilitation Act, explore the burdens of proof associated with establishing claims for these damages, including where an agency can argue for limiting damages, or that the damages are unrelated to the agency's actions. Each attendee will receive a copy of the book Compensatory Damages and Other Remedies, written by the instructors!
